1. The M.A.N. has purchased from S.A.F.A.R. of Milan, Italy, radio equipment consisting of two 200-watt transmitters, receivers and antennae. Unit cost of these stations, which were purchased for experimental use, was 2,440,000 lire. The purchase price was paid by the Societe Generale de Surveillance against a guarantee of the Rumanian Ministry of Commerce. Delivery was to be made on 17 October by the Rumanian vessel TRANSYLVANIA.
2. If the experimental equipment proved satisfactory, the Rumanian authorities were prepared to purchase from the Italians a total of 60 complete stations, contingent upon the ability to purchase in Italy generators and the vehicles necessary for the transport of such stations and generators.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
